WHAT IS MUN?

MODEL UNITED NATIONS

Think. Debate. Negotiate. Lead.

A simulation of the United Nations where you step into the shoes of a country's diplomat, debate global issues, negotiate with other delegates, and work towards solutions.

WHAT DO YOU ACTUALLY DO?

1. REPRESENT A COUNTRY

You become the delegate of a nation and represent its interests.

2. DEBATE GLOBAL ISSUES

Discuss real-world problems in a formal committee setting.

3. NEGOTIATE & COLLABORATE

Build alliances, challenge opposing ideas and find common ground.

4. DRAFT SOLUTIONS

Work with other delegates to create resolutions addressing the issue.

5. COMPETE & WIN

Stand out through your research, diplomacy, public speaking and strategy.

WHY SHOULD YOU PARTICIPATE?

You don't need to be an expert.
MUN helps you build:

- Public Speaking
- Critical Thinking
- Negotiation Skills
- Global Awareness
- Leadership
- Communication

WHAT HAPPENS AT AN MUN?

1. You walk into committee as a delegate.
2. You receive your country & agenda.
3. You research your country's position.
4. You speak, debate & question.
5. You form alliances.
6. You negotiate & draft solutions.
7. You compete for awards.
